Extended Learning Packet #1 - Twenty Poetry Terms
(to be used in conjunction with "103. The Tools of Poetry" from 201 Ready-to-Use Word Games for the English Classroom by Jack Umstatter)

Directions. Study the words, definitions, and examples on the front of this sheet for about 20 minutes. When you have finished studying, complete the crossword puzzle on the back. This will be collected for a grade.

Alliteration - the repetition of initial consonant sounds. Example: She sells seashells by the seashore.

Apostrophe - a figure of speech in which an absent or dead person, or an abstract quality, is addressed. Example: Fluffy, why did you have to go to the big litter box in the sky?

Ballad - a story told in verse and usually meant to be sung

Blank Verse - verse written in unrhymed iambic pentameter

Caesura - a break or pause in a line of poetry

Canto - a section or division of a long poem

Conceit - a kind of metaphor that makes a comparison between two startlingly different things

Couplet - two consecutive lines of poetry that rhyme. Example: My mom says I can rhyme,
But I don’t rhyme all the time.

Elegy - a poem of mourning, usually over the death of an individual. Example: Fluffy, oh Fluffy,
I’m so sad to see you go.
Did you love me like I loved you?
I’ll never know.
You scratched more than you purred,
And hissed more than you meowed,
Until you came along I never knew a cat could be so loud.

Epic - a long narrative poem telling the deeds of a culture’s hero and the values of that culture

Hyperbole - a figure of speech using exaggeration, or overstatement, for special effect

Kenning - an elaborate phrase that describes persons, things, or events in an indirect way

Metaphor - a figure of speech that makes a comparison between two things that are basically dissimilar. Example: That dude is a rock. (meaning solid, strong)

Metonymy - a figure of speech in which something very closely associated with a thing it stands for. Example: "The PEN is mightier than the SWORD", where "pen" represents the written word and "sword" represents physical or military force.

Ode - a complex, lengthy poem written in dignified style about a serious subject

Oxymoron - a figure of speech that combines opposite or contradictory ideas or terms. Example: She asked me to provide three original copies. (How can they be original and copies at the same time?)

Quatrain - a stanza or poem of four lines. Example: Roses are red,
Violets are blue.
Some poems rhyme,
This one doesn’t.

Rhythm - the repetition of sounds in two or more words or phrases that appear close to each other

Simile - a comparison made between two things through the use of a specific words comparison (and usually uses "like" or "as") Example: That dude’s arms are rocks! (meaning solid, strong)

Sonnet - a fourteen line poem, usually written in rhymed iambic pentameter
Poetry, like any of the literary genres, has the ability to move us. Much of poetry's success is due to the poetic devices that the poet employs throughout the poem. Identify the twenty poetic terms described below. Then you might try composing your own poetic lines that use these terms.

Review the Elements of a Story
Story Map DUE: ____________________

Directions: Watch a ½-1 hour television show. It could be a situation comedy or a drama. It could be an episode broadcast for the first time or one you have on DVD or view online. (You could even watch a 2 hour movie, if you want.) It has to tell a story (no documentaries). While you watch the show, complete the Story Map on the reverse side of this paper.

An antonym is a word that means the opposite of another word.

Something that is factual is based on facts.
If you are congenial, you are agreeable.
Disagreeable means "unpleasant."
Lenient means "merciful."
Severe means "harsh."
Entice means "lure."
If you repel someone, you drive that person away.
Something that is transparent is easily seen through.
Something that is opaque does not allow light or understanding through.

I'm make-believe.

Fanciful means "imaginary."
