Score Report Plus

PSAT/NMSQT scores indicate how ready you are for college-level work. In addition to your test scores, your Score Report Plus gives you personalized feedback on your academic skills, and is full of information to help you get ready for college and for the SAT®.

Score Report Plus gives you:

- Your Scores
  PSAT/NMSQT scores are reported on a scale of 20 to 80. In 2011, the average score for eleventh graders was approximately 48 in critical reading, 49 in mathematics, and 46 in writing skills. The average score for tenth graders was approximately 43 in critical reading, 43 in mathematics, and 41 in writing skills.

- Ranges
  Ranges give you another way to think about your scores. They show how much your scores would likely vary if you took the PSAT/NMSQT a number of times.

- Percentile
  National percentiles help you compare your performance on the PSAT/NMSQT to the performance of other juniors or sophomores. If you are a freshman or younger, you are being compared to sophomores.

- Your Skills
  In the "Your Skills" section you will get personalized feedback on your academic skills, based on your test performance. After reviewing this section, go online and log in to My College QuickStart™ to try hundreds of practice questions that can help you work on the skills you want to improve.

- Your Answers
  This section contains the number, correct answer, your answer, and level of difficulty are displayed for every question on the test. This is extremely valuable to you since you get your actual copy of the PSAT/NMSQT test booklet back when you receive your Score Report Plus.

- Next Steps
  In the "Next Steps" section, you'll find information about the major you expressed interest in on test day, as well as an access code that allows you to go online and learn more about this major, related majors, and careers that may be a good fit for you.

My College QuickStart

All students who take the PSAT/NMSQT receive free access to My College QuickStart, a personalized college planning tool that complements the Score Report Plus. With the access code provided on your score report, you can access the following:
